

LMIA-Based Work Permit (Inside Canada)

- Passport: A valid passport with sufficient validity to cover the intended period of employment in Canada.
- Copy of Positive LMIA: A copy of the Labour Market Impact Assessment provided by the Canadian employer.
- Copy of Employment Contract: A signed written employment contract from the Canadian employer outlining the job details, wages, and terms.
- Current Work permit or Study Permit or Visitor Record (If applicable)
- Proof of Work Experience:
 - Letters of reference from previous employers.
 - Résumés or CVs detailing work history.
 - Pay stubs or other proof of employment (if available).
- Proof of Education:
 - Copies of diplomas, degrees, or certificates.
 - Transcripts.
 - Educational Credential Assessment (ECA) if required by the program or occupation.
- Language Proficiency Test Results (if applicable): Results from a designated language test (e.g., IELTS, CELPIP) if the job or program requires a specific language level.
- Digital Photo: Recent passport-style photographs meeting IRCC specifications.
- Medical Exam Confirmation (if required): Proof of completion of a medical examination by an IRCC-approved panel physician, if requested.
- Family Information Form: Details about your family members, whether they are accompanying you or not.
- Bank Balance Certificate and Statement of at least 6 months.
- TRV Form: Download this form from our website and complete and sign with blue pen.